YOUTH TO INVADE CITY'S INDUSTRY AND BUSINESS SETUPS ON TUESDAY

Lee Shippey Writes On Neighbors

A noteworthy American weakness, it seems to me, arises from the fact that so many of us have one foot in the stirrup, eager to sell out at a profit and move to some assertedly more glamorous place.

Indeed, some of us seem to feel it is almost a duty to sell if we can get a good profit.

Thus charming neighborhoods fall into decay and become candidates for urban renewal — considerably at Uncle Sam's expense.

Maybe there should be a law that persons who desert a neighborhood but still own property there, out of which they squeeze all the profit they can, should be compelled to support it as they would have to support a deserted family, in fairness to their former neighbors.

Many charming neighborhoods sink into depression and even into slums which could have retained the prestige they once enjoyed if they had been maintained in proper repair. Many an urban renewal area occupies what were the choicest building sites in town not many years ago.

AND WHAT DID those who deserted such neighborhoods gain?

I oten think of a friend who made big money in movies and built a home in a neighborhood so exclusive only the most prosperous could live there.

But soon afterward the lovely place next door was sold. The buyers' motor cars and furnishings spoke of much money. My friends welcomed them into the neighborhood and urged them to call on them for anything they might need while getting settled.

But before the new neighbors had lived there long enough to get chummy my friends were startled by gunfire. The new neighbors in that most exclusive neighborhood were a notorious gunman and his moll, and the FBI was closing in on them.

It isn't money that makes a neighborhood. It's neighbors.

IT ISN'T in one way only that a house is not a home. The ideal home should be a place where children can put down roots and grow up with the community, not just a place to sell and abandon.

A home should be a place full of loved memories, a place which largely expresses your own personality and good neighborliness, a place which fits you like a comfortable shoe, even if it shows repair here and there.

A home should give one something far greater than mere profit. It should give one a sense of belonging and responsibility, of obligations to those who have helped to make it what it is and to the neighborhood.

That is good citizenship. Of course, many of us—most of us, actually—must live economically and simply, yet everyone could live in a lovely neighborhood if everyone in the neighborhood did his bit to keep it lovely.

The home would then breed that sense of self-respect, and our children would benefit far more than we could by moving to a more pretentious neighborhood.

HONORS FOR TEN YEARS of service as chaplain at the City of Hope are symbolized in the Torch of Hope Award given to Rabbi Charles W. Students To Learn Of 'Work'

For four hours next Tuesday, during the first Sierra Madre Youth in Business and Industry Day, Sierra Madre industry, businesses will be taken over by the city's high school students who will spend the day learning more about their chosen fields

All students who applied have been placed according to their requests. However, the generosity of Sierra Madre businessmen created more positions than the committee was able to fill.

Following an assembly as 9 a.m. in City Council Chambers, the youths participating will spend from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at their assigned "jobs" to learn what preparation will be needed to enter their chosen fields.

THE SIERRA MADRE Kiwanis club will be hosts to such "student employes" and their "employers" who wish to attend their Tuesday luncheon meeting at the Woman's Clubhouse,

Speaker will be Bruce Corwin, area lighting engineer for Southern California Edison, and attached to its Eastern Division Headquarters in Covina. He will discuss "Seeing Things Under a Different Light."

Mr. Corwin is a member of the Board of Managers of the Illuminating Engineering Society and has lectured at the University of Southern California and other Southern California schools.

Kiwanis Club's Annual Breakfast Set for June 3

The Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club's annual breakfast will be held Saturday morning, June 3, at Memorial Park, it was announced yesterday.

Kiwanians staged a theater party last night, attending the Pasadena Playhouse production of "Make a Million," and honoring Hugh Warden, member of the club.

Court Advances Date . . .

Toyon Road Battle Upped To April 20

BULLETIN

City Atty. Charles R. Martin advised City Council Tuesday night that the Appellate Division at the April 20 hearing will require Superior Court to show why it should be permitted to try the Prescott Builders suit. If it cannot the present temporary injunction will be made permanent.

Next move in the Toyon Road fight will be heard in the District Court of Appeals, Appellate Division, on Thursday, April 20, instead of May 19, as originally set.

Moving up of the case, in which the City of Sierra Madre seeks to prevent Prescott Builders from making it a co-plaintiff in the subdivider's fight against the embattled property owners who for more than 14 months have fought the subdivision plans relative to the hillside community, was ordered by the court last Thursday.

Prescott Builders would make the city co-plaintiff in its effort to condemn land needed for an entrance to the subdivision, but which the Toyon Rd. property owners refuse to sell. Led by John A. Sielen, they contend that the entire subdivision, as planned, is harmful to the community. Size of the lots is a question especially at stake.

THE CITY months ago approved the subdivision itself, but Prescott Builders, with no means of access, has been unable to file, with City Council, the necessary completed map. Unless this is done by May 10, the time limit automatically expires and Prescott Builders loses its subdivision rights.

Realizing this, Prescott Builders successfully petitioned the court for moving up the date for arguments in the case to April 20.

City Atty. Charles R. Martin will represent the city and ask the court to make permanent the alternative writ of prohibition granted Wednesday, April 5.

Miss Speyer Still Missing

Police today had no definite clue in the ten-day mystery surrounding the strange disappearance of Miss Francis E. Speyer of San Francisco who vanished on April 3 while visiting a Sierra Madre friend.

Miss Speyer had come to visit the Easter holidays with her friend, Mrs. Dorothea L. Holtman of 400 Foothill Ave. She left the Holtman home, intending to visit Mrs. May Alford, living two blocks away. She never reached the Alford home.

Police here and in San Francisco have checked innumerable clues, none of

So, the Two Ran Away

Jerry Eugene Still, 11, and his brother, Walter, 7, had a high old grubstaking time of it Saturday and Sunday—the outside world beckoned, and also irked by some parental discipline—they ran away from home at 296 Santa Anita Court.

Brought into play in the effort to find the runaways were the police, the Search and Rescue Team, its bloodhounds directed by Don Culberson, their parents and other kinsmen.

Eugene and Walter slept all Saturday night under a trenching machine parked on West Sierra Madre Blvd., across from the Methodist Church and just east of Michillinda. The trencher is being used in excavating for the city's new sanitary sewer system.

It was a bit tough going sleeping on the dirt and pavement, but the boys, tired out, managed to get safely through the night and, hungry, were wandering about in that neighborhood when spotted by Officer Lindekens, taken to the City Hall and eventually released in custody of their mother, Mrs. Ruba Gayda, and stepfather.

Dickens Group Meets April 20

With Mrs. O. E. (Alta) Robinson and Mrs. Charles R. (Isabel) Gildart reading, the Sierra Madre Dickens Fellowship meets April 20 at 2 p.m. at the Mrs. Louise Wisemer home, 965 W. Foothill Blvd., Arcadia.

Council Vote On Two Commissions Stopped

In a session marked by considerable byplay, Sierra Madre City Council Tuesday night decided to change the makeup of the Planning and Recreation Commissions, partition the proposed Suffolk St. opening, if necessary, buy more water to meet any summer contingency that might arise due to the drought, and to give aid to Senior Citizens in the matter of bus fares.

Councilman Lorance W. Lisle fathered the move to alter the makeup of the Planning and the Parks and Recreation Commissions.

Through this the Council members of the commissions will have no votes as at present, acting mostly in a liaison capacity, and another member will be added to each commission, chosen from the public at large.

Councilman Lisle represents the city on the Planning Commission and Councilman James F. Abernethy on the Recreation Commission.

CONCERNING the Suffolk St. opening, Council approved a resolution providing for either a half or a full street, the first from S. Baldwin through to the First Western Bank property, or a through street from S. Baldwin to S. Hermosa, the latter depending upon acquisition of property rights.

It was agreed that Carl Hansen and his automobile agency property west of the

Nursery School Addition Fund Still Short $2,500

Dr. Paul Narcowich, chairman of the Marjorie Green Building Fund Committee for the Sierra Madre Community Nursery School, reports donations of $1,500 have been received, but that in order to reach the goal, $2,500 more is needed by May 1. These may be either cash donations or pledges.

The money must come from contributions by present members of the Nursery School Association, graduate families and from all friends of the Nursery School and citizens of the community.

The building committee is completely organized and ready to begin work. Were it not for the generous donations of time, talents, materials and labor, cost of the planned building would far exceed the estimated $9,000.

MRS. GERALD G. MARUGG JR., director of the Sierra Madre Community Nursery School, advises that the plans for the Marjorie Green Center have been approved by the state fire marshal and State Department of So-

'Operation Abolition' Film Tonight

The Sierra Madre Lions Club in conjunction with Joseph H. Hinojos, Sierra Madre World War II veteran and widely-known photographer, will present the second showing in this city tonight (Thursday) at 8 o'clock of "Operation Abolition" in Sierra Madre School Auditorium.

"Operation Abolition" is the controversial film about the San Francisco City Hall riots incidental to a House UnAmerican Committee hearing in that city.

First showing of the film in Sierra Madre was weeks ago by the Kiwanis Club.

The Lions Club also recently presented "Communism On the Map" to a filled house at the Sierra Madre School Auditorium.

Book Sale Will Also Feature Children's Program

The Friends of the Library will hold more than a book sale this year.

On the final day of the sale, Saturday, April 22, a special children's program has been planned from 10 a.m. to 12 noon.

Mrs. Jane Morse has arranged a special display of group arts and crafts from various age levels. Also scheduled is a folk music and square dancing demonstration and a refreshment booth at which fruit juice and cookies will be sold.

Sale of children's books will be featured during this two-hour period.

MEANWHILE, book collection boxes have been placed at eight locations in Sierra Madre and one in Hastings Ranch. The sale will be in the lower level room of the Sierra Madre Library on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, April 20, 21 and 22.

A pre-sale for Sierra Madreans only will be held Thursday evening from 6 to 9 o'clock. Hours Friday and Saturday will be from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Mrs. Bernard Tumilty, sale chairman, has had collection boxes placed at the Library, City Hall, First Western Bank, Woman's Clubhouse, Hartman's Pharmacy, Roberts Market, Roess Market, Royal Drugs and the Shopping Bag.

Persons who want used books picked up at their homes may call Mrs. Tumilty at Elgin 5-9562, or Mrs. Tweedie, president of the Friends, at ELgin 5-1345.

Marylyn Barnes Writes Engrossing, Gossipy News About Sierra Madre Folk

By Marylyn Barnes

Several Sea Nymphs weren't feeling too "nymph-like" (not to mention their mothers) after their highly successful rummage sale last week. It's a big job. But I'm sure thoughts of their Catalina trip, which the rummage sale made possible, will soothe their aching arches and tired backs. They'll go in August, for five days, aboard the Resolute. Among those planning to go are Janet Osborne, Claudia Welch, Linda Farmer and Leslie McGiven.

CONGRATULATIONS to Myrtle Weese and Madeline Pritchard, each of whom won prizes in the current Las Artistas art show at the Greek Theater. Mrs. Weese was awarded both first and second prizes for her portrait oil painting, and Mrs. Pritchard, of Monterey Lane, won two second prizes for her marine and landscape paintings.

Las Artistas is a group of women artists in the Los Angeles area, and they sponsored the show. Congratulations, again.

ARCADIA. The beautiful new Ralphs of Foothill Blvd. and Second Avenue in Arcadia is truly one of the most beautiful market in California. The Gala opening this weekend will feature a full size carnival, hosts of celebrities, free prizes and gifts plus outstanding food values in every department. Store hours will be 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. seven days a week. Check cashing, payment of utility bills, money orders made out are among store services.

Arcadia has long been noted for the most beautiful race-track in the world . . . now, we welcome what many who've seen it, declare is the most beautiful super-market in the world . . . the new RALPHS ARCADIA, which has its official Grand Opening today through Sunday.

HUGE, BUT "COZY"

Enormous as it is . . . 30,000 square feet . . . the new Ralphs has none of the hustle-bustle and coldness so often associated with "supers." Instead, its discreet, elegant color scheme of soft aqua and cocoa, with accents of creamy pink and white; its wide 7 foot aisles, its "sound-conditioning" and "climate - control" achieve an atmosphere of serenity and cool comfort that makes shopping a real joy.

FAST CHECK-OUT

Even though the many comforts and tremendous arrays of tempting foods promote enjoyable, unhurried shopping . . once you've completed your list, a long line of the fastest check-out stands yet invented, with "Courtesy College" trained checkers and boxboys, speed you happily through in record time.

CUSTOM-CUT MEATS!

Always alert to the specific desires of each area, Ralphs has anticipated the discriminating tastes of Arcadia, Monrovia, and Sierra Madre home-makers by providing a staff of especially skilled and courteous Meat-Men on duty at all times (not just available by ringing a bell) in a special section of the huge, immaculate meat department to cut to order those 2-inch Golden Premium steaks, fabulous rib or rolled roasts, racks of lamb, loins of pork, scallopini of veal, or any special cut you desire.

These men can advise on proper cooking methods and will have recipes, menu suggestions, and cooking time charts available. They can advise about barbecuing various meats, too, or, if you're in a hurry, they'll have piping-hot-from-the-spit . . . already barbecued ribs and chickens for you to take home and enjoy!

An innovation of Ralphs Arcadia is a store-within-a-store, catering-type bakery, done in soft yellow and natural wood tones with a copper hood, like an old-fashioned hearth-oven and a deep-cold display case for perishable delicacies like real French Petit-Fours, Cream-Puffs and Custard pastries.

All Ralphs Breads, Rolls, Cakes and Pastries are prepared from finest ingredients by bakers of many years' experience, in Ralphs own enormous bakery, regarded as one of the largest, most modern in the world, and rushed to Ralphs stores each morning.

Ralphs cakes are famous for their fine-textured, rich-tasting "Home-Made" goodness and lavish frosting; Ralph's pies for their [illegible] fillings and [illegible] crusts, and Ralphs Breads for their variety and old-time wholesomeness . . . as well as an average saving of 3c per loaf as compared to "commercial" brands.

PRODUCE DEPARTMENT

Will feature gentle, moist-refrigeration sections to keep green produce and perishable fruits literally dew-fresh, as well as dry areas for staples like potatoes, bananas and citrus fruits.

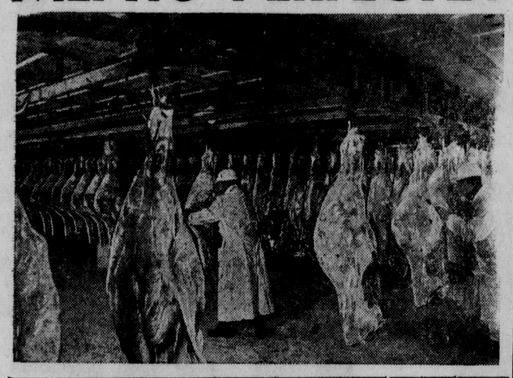

Premium quality produce . . . extra large berries, asparagus, and selected, gourmet-type fruits and vegetables will be featured at Ralphs Arcadia.

TREMENDOUS VALUES

Shown on the following pages are typical of the 7-day-a-week bargains that are a strictly maintained policy throughout the Ralphs 41-store chain.

Even more important to family budgets, however, are the proved lower shelf prices, which are constantly checked to make sure that they are lower than those maintained anywhere else on the majority of items.

HASTINGS RANCH NEWS

UP ON . . . Hastings Hill

By Joyce Wenger
SYcamore 8-4777

News searching and sleuthing for this column is fun—and often surprisingly rewarding. For instance, I had a tip regarding the arrival at Huntington Memorial Hospital of a seventh child to Dorothy and Dayton Seiler, of 930 Crestview. Pleasurable follow-up — a long talk with Commander Dayton Seiler, undoubtedly one of the most outstanding men in the Ranch!

Recently retired from the Navy, "young" Commander Seiler is in widespread demand throughout the Southland as a lecturer on our national security. (Fact is, my friends were genuinely enthusiastic over his recent address to the American Legion.)

Dayton Seiler is well trained to speak with authority on such matters. A graduate of Annapolis, he also has M.S. and A.E. degrees from Caltech.

HIS PAST POSITIONS and achievements are innumerable, but briefly, they are these:

Commander of an aircraft squadron at sea. Originated and led the Bureau of Aeronautics Technical Intelligence Mission. This was a new concept in intelligence to determine the technical achievement of Germany.

The mission gathered information and top German scientists on missiles, rockets and ordnance in 1944-45. Since then he has assisted in preparation of the initial concept for the Pacific Missile Range at Point Mugu. He was also responsible for the initial organization of the submarine launched Polaris missile.

DISCUSSION of his work, past and present, pales by comparison when he speaks fondly of his family. The most recent addition brings the number to six girls and one boy. Popular twins, Sharon and Sandra, are Pom-Pom girls (and on the honor roll, too,) at Marshall.

Susan is also a student at Marshall. David, Linda and Diane attend Don Benito.

Dorothy has served her stint in Scouting, and both parents are active in their church. Congratulations to all the Seilers — as I said, news sleuthing can be most rewarding!

SPEAKING OF proud parents—Mr. and Mrs. Mack L. Hanson are floating on cloud nine since their son Jeff brought home the Sweepstakes trophy in the Search for Talent competition at the Civic last Sunday. Jeff is a ninth grade student at Marshall and has been studying piano for five years.

THE SOCIAL SERVICE committee brought the Shakespeare Juniors and friends together last night for fun and philanthropy at a pint-sized dessert bridge.

Chairman Germain Potter was delighted with the results. They will be able to purchase a vacuum cleaner and some much needed white goods for the Children's Training Society, which is ever expanding.

Among those bidding and passing — Bet Rogers, Jo Ann Williams, Marian Anderson and Patty Meskell.

OFF TO THE Disneyland Hotel for a Theta District Convention on the 14th are Janell Vail and Jean Brackman. Jean is college district president and will be busy visiting the college chapters during the year.

TRINITY GUILD announces another outstanding speaker for their luncheon meeting Tuesday, April 18. She is Norma Brookhart, who spent 18 years as a missionary in Africa. Members and guests will please phone Marilyn Pursley, ELgin 5-9634, for reservations.

CASTING CALL is out to all Junior League members and husbands for "Frivolous Frolics, Circa '61," to be presented May 13 at the Civic Auditorium. Proceeds aid the League's main project, the Senior Center.

A music hall setting of Toulouse-Lautrec's Montmartre will background the Tryout Party the League is planning for April 18. Mike Pober of Cargill Productions will direct the revue.

Tickets are available at the League Cottage at the Huntington-Sheraton through May 8. After that date, they will be on sale at the Pasadena Civic Auditorium.

VILLA VIEWS

By Toni Maurin
SY. 7-9634

I couldn't help but reflect this week, as I read some of the tragic headlines, on the miseries that people bring on themselves.

What anguish within a person makes him erupt and commit these heinous acts of violence?

I wonder, if along the way someone had taken time to comfort a disturbed person, or lend a helping hand or prayer, as the case might be, whether a tragedy might have been averted.

There is never a day that passes that the grim reaper has not acquired an unexpected guest.

There is an old but valid saying that sometimes you cannot see the trees for the forest. It could be that people cannot realize the happiness at hand and the goodness in life because they are so geared to keep seeking rainbows that never could have come.

Life is like an investment; the more you invest the more interest you reap, the more love you give, the more you receive, perhaps not where you expected to find it, but somehow the scales have a way of balancing eventually.

I HAD the happiest surprise the other day. I attended a luncheon given by Mrs. Edwin Pyle of Old House Rd., at the Annandale Country Club.

The party presumedly was to fete the officers and nominating committee of the Villa Guild to the Rosemary Cottage. In addition, however, it turned out to be a going-away party for yours truly. It came as a complete and delightful surprise.

Guests were Mmes. Edward Halperin, Lincoln Wilson, Joseph Mangan, F. R. Anderson, Norman White, C. Tom Crawford, Joseph Phelps and Ira Lackey. Thank you, one and all.

THE P. MEL KNOLLS of Villa Heights vacationed briefly last week at San Simeon. They took their four daughters, Valerie, Melisse, Denise and Lorie. They enjoyed the castle, but the weather was inclement during the entire time.

I JUST LEARNED that Kenneth W. Christianson of Sierra Madre Villa has been elected for the fifth consecutive year to the Leader Million Dollar Round Table. Mr. Christianson has the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Agency at 420 Wilshire Blvd. in Los Angeles.

In addition to being on the Round Table this year he will also serve on the committee for the annual meeting. He also was elected to the Advisory Council of Connecticut Mutual, an honor which was a complete surprise to him. Congratulations, Ken!

IT'S BEEN RATHER HARD to catch Mmes. Art D. Welsh, Eldon Osburn, L. G. Farmer, Paul Siechert, John Hedrick, Horace McGiven or Paul Raye. They have been running up and down the hill collecting rummage which was, in turn, sold to benefit their respective daughters' Mariner Scout Group, "Sea Nymph Division."

The girls and the mothers worked side by side on this project and have raised enough money to put them well on their way to their summer excursion.

MR. AND MRS. AIKMAN ARMSTRONG of Fairpoint hosted last Friday evening at a dinner party. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lambert, Dr. and Mrs. Lincoln Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. John Chapman.

THE GEORGE AMTHORS of Barhite have had a busy schedule of late. They just returned from a ten-day auto trip to San Antonio where they visited with Mrs. Amthor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Zuelecke.

They were widely entertained there by their many friends and Mrs. Amthor's sister. The children, George, Georganne, Swinnette, Gertrude and Grant Michael, all enjoyed a lot of fishing, having had extremely good luck.

Last Saturday night the Amthors hosted the "Supper Club." The members are Messrs. and Mmes. John Wiles, Ben Rogers, A. J. Huber and Ralph Paquette.

Republican Women Will Sponsor Play

The Arcadia Republican Woman's Club will sponsor a benefit performance of "The Third Best Sport," a comedy, presented by the San Marino Players, Wednesday, April 19, at 8:30 p.m. in the Huntington School Auditorium, 1700 W. Huntington Dr., San Marino.

Tickets are $1.50 and may be obtained by calling Mrs. John Morgan at HIllcrest 7-9780. The Woman's Republican Club will be allowed to keep $1 from each tciket sale. Tickets will not be available at the door.

Several pre-performance parties have been planned and among them are two in the Highland Oaks area.

Mr. and Mrs. George Galloway of 2025 Carolwood will entertain Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Scovill, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ellion, Mr. and Mrs. James Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Gilliand, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Supple, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Murphy, and Mr. and Mrs. Duncan MacDonald.

Another cocktail party will be at the John Morgan home, 1645 Wilson Ave., where they will be hosts to Dr. and Mrs. David Buckingham, Mr. and Mrs. James Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Godfrey and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Koutnik of Arcadia.

Their other guests from Pasadena and San Marino will be Mr. and Mrs. D. G. West, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Herzstam, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Walter, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Heublein, Mr. and. Mrs Peter Burum, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Fuller, and Mr. and Mrs. John McConaghy.

Tuesday Meeting Of Garden Club

Hastings Ranch Garden Club will hold its monthly meeting Tuesday, April 25, at noon at the home of Mrs. Richard Pauloo, 371 Arroyo Terrace.

Following dessert, there will be a membership participation program. Mrs. Pauloo will sing a group of songs, Mrs. Evan Whitlock will demonstrate corsage making and there will be a plant exchange.

Oaks Home Ready

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Gilb are now established in their new home at 940 Singing Wood Dr., Santa Anita Oaks. The Gilbs are former Hastings Ranch residents and have three children, Denise, 6; Michael, 4, and Valerie Dawn, 11 months.

Faith Lutheran Building Fund for New Sanctuary Exceeds Total of $72,000

"Blessings From the Good Shepherd" will be Rev. Armin Hesse's sermon theme in the 10:30 o'clock Sunday morning worship hour at Faith Lutheran Church, 835 Hastings Ranch Dr. This pastoral message on the 23rd Psalm will be in keeping with the congregation's observance of Good Shepherd Sunday.

Holy Baptism will be administered to Thomas Barry Schlines, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schlines of Pasadena. Holy Communion also will be observed in the Sunday service.

Last Sunday, Freeman Robbins, chairman of Faith Congregation, announced in the worship service that building fund subscriptions and gifts had exceeded the sum of $72,000. He added that upon request of a number of members of the congregation for additional time, the crusade period would be extended and the "Roll of Builders" would remain open for a number of weeks to accommodate them.

NEXT WEDNESDAY the ladies of Faith Lutheran's Women's Missionary League will participate in a zone rally to be held at Gethsemane Lutheran Church in La Canada. For transportation, ladies are asked to meet at Faith Church at 9:15 a.m.

Currently James Leahy and Rev. Armin Hesse are representing Faith Church at the Southern California District convention of The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, being held in the Municipal Auditorium, San Bernardino. In the opening service held last Sunday evening the delegates and visitors prayed the following words taken from the convention litany:

"Bestow wisdom and discernment upon the President, the Congress, the Supreme Court, and all who are in positions of authority; Grant to our representatives in the United Nations the fortitude to oppose evil and enslavement, and the ability to promote decency and freedom for people everywhere; awaken all freedom-loving citizens to the satanic conspiracy which endeavors to encircle and to engulf also our nation. Defend us from all evils from within and from without. O Lord, have mercy upon us and upon our land."

The convention concludes sessions this afternoon at 5 o'clock.

NEXT SUNDAY afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. Erwin Kurth, D.D., of Detroit, Mich., will be formally installed as pastor of Christ Lutheran Church, W. 5th and Ruthelen, Los Angeles.

The Rev. Mr. Kurth, widely known clergyman of The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod and author of the recently published book, "The Passion Pilgrimage," is the father of Dr. Charles Kurth of the Sierra Madre Medical Center and of Mrs. Don Misch, also a Sierra Madre resident.

Gregor and Morse Take Tennis Match

Finals of the Open Doubles Tennis Tournament held last Sunday on the Memorial Park courts were won by Marilyn Greger and Lawrence Morse, 3-6, 6-2 and 6-1, over the team of John Dubois and Stan Smith.

The scores do not accurately indicate the splendid tennis exhibited by these teams before the large group of spectators who had assembled in the late afternoon hours.

Ten teams of doubles entered this tournament, sponsored by the Sierra Madre Tennis Club, and waged a day-long battle to determine the winning team of each section. Culmination of these efforts was the three-set finals so brilliantly played.

Attractive trophies were awarded to the winners and the runners-up in the finale.

"We've built all kinds, but we live in Medallion homes"
H. C. VALENTINE, PRESIDENT; LYNN VALENTINE, VICE PRESIDENT. H. C. VALENTINE & SON, INC.
What better guide could you have in buying a home?
Here's a father-and-son team of builders whose experience with all kinds of homes led them to build their own to Medallion requirements.
"We see it in people every day, this great desire for modern electric living," says the senior Mr. Valentine. "Since we first started building in Los Angeles County in 1946, we've built hundreds of homes. Those with electric appliances have always found ready buyers."
"It's easy to understand," says the younger Mr. Valentine. "Take the electric range, for example. In my own home we find electric cooking so cool and clean it makes any other kind seem old-fashioned. And modern housepower wiring is a real asset. We have quite a few appliances; plenty of electric power is a must."
The Valentines, professional builders of quality homes, live as well as build Medallion. Their reasons are significant for home-buyers everywhere. Make sure the home you buy meets Medallion standards.
Only one new home in five qualifies for the Medallion — an award which assures you:
1. An all-electric kitchen, equipped with major electrical appliances, including flameless range and oven.
2. Housepower wiring for modern electric living.
3. Light for Living — abundant light designed for comfort, safety and beauty.
The Gold Medallion Award includes all these Medallion features and more. For total-electric living, the Gold Medallion adds:
4. Flameless electric space and water heating.

'Song Of Siberia'

FOREWORD — David, a young Hungarian patriot who took part in the revolt against Red Russia, composed a Song of Freedom while, with his co-patriots, he was being banished to Siberia, 4,000 miles from Budapest. How this song was spirited back to Budapest, thence to Berlin for consideration by the Freedoms Underground Movement and back again to Budapest, is the core of the story thus far. How the Communists were foiled in their attempt to seize it was told last week. Now go on with the story.

By Den and Martha Murray

As he slid to a fear-frozen stop, black ghosts bearing guns came streaking over the banked snow. In the blinding glare of flashlights the terrified Hungarian, Teleki, and the driver were jerked from the cab.

"Where's Fodhadnagy?" It was chorused demand.

Paralyzed with fright, Teleki could only point ahead to the inferno in front. They looked — crossed themselves —turned back to the traitor. Teleki found his voice and began to plead.

This time is was their guns that chorused. Someone said: "Let him rejoin his Russian comrades." They were dragging his corpse toward the flames ahead when their leader roared, "Not up there with Fodhadnagy!"

They reversed their course to the rear fire. Now the Russian driver was prodded back up into his seat. The leader barked orders to the others and joined the driver in the cab. Again the truck and trailers were on their way.

The subterranean headquarters of the Freedom Fighters was remindful of a nest of huge sewer rats. The "rats" were scurrying back and forth from the mouth of their "run" packing in supplies. One-eyed Karolyi, superintending, kept them under the lash of his watch. They were three hours behind schedule.

Seated at a table with Prof. Arpad, the wide-eyed, manacled Russian driver beside him, was the successor to Fodhadnagy. At the moment he was answering a query from Arpad.

"No, Fodhadnagy's plan was almost certain to succeed. We've had those guns ever since we cut up that Russian tank column. Fodhadnagy had been just dying to use them. It was a simple matter to set the ambush on the only western approach to Budapest where the bridges would stand up under the terrific weight."

Arpad shook his head wonderingly. "But for a man who enjoyed life like that rogue . . . to give it up so deliberately, so cheerfully."

The new leader laughed grimly. "Don't you fool yourself into thinking that Fodhadnagy was giving up his life cheerfully." He indicated the Russian driver. "He told us that Fodhadnagy screamed like a frustrated stallion when they wouldn't let him ride in the American truck." He shrugged fatalistically.

"Of course, when that was the only way to get the stuff through, well, Fodhadnagy was Fodhadnagy."

Karolyi came over knuckling the sweat from his vacant eye socket. "Five more mintues does it."

The new guerrilla chieftain got up. Arpad said, "Don't forget to leave the 'plant' when you dunk the truck. They've got to think it's guns we brought in."

The guerrilla leader nodded. His eyes roved curiously over the tiers of "ammunition." Prodding the Russian driver before him he moved over for a closer inspection. In addition to the white printed cigaret-like papers, there were gas masks, gas pistols, phonograph records, machine guns, other unidentifiable items visible beneath the protective tarpaulins. He turned and shook hands with Arpad and Karolyi.

"I hope this stuff is worth Fodhadnagy."

"We'll make it worth him," promised Arpad.

The guerrilla leader said, "May Saint Stephen help you." He prodded the Russian driver towards the tunnel.

CHAPTER 47

The call that awakened Commissar Vilanovitch came at 1:45 a.m. He noted the time on the luminous-faced night clock as he rolled over in his luxurious twin bed, snapped on the night lamp and picked up the chattering instrument. Narva, in the adjoining twin, awakened, too. She frowned in the glow of the lamp as she tried to guess the trouble prompting the call. It couldn't be anything else at this ungodly hour.

Vilanovitch was listening with rising choler. Finally he demanded, "And the truck and trailers?"

There was a detailed reply that Narva couldn't make out. Vilanovitch rasped, "Notify Col. Tornov. Tell him I'll meet him at Foutca in 20 minutes."

As her husband heaved himself furiously out of bed, Narva twitted him, "I told you that fiend Fodhadnagy would outwit you two geniuses."

"Shut up!" snarled Vilanovitch, wrenching at his pajama buttons. "It was Tornov that was outwitted. So far, I only lose Teleki. Tornov loses two lorries and 25 men. It was the truck and trailers I gambled for—and they're still in the city!"

Night strollers on one of the ancient spans linking the twin cities of Buda and Pest —mostly romantic couples— received a thrill entirely unconnected with their kind of love.

Suddenly a large truck, snaking two trailers behind it, came roaring down the hill onto the bridge approach and failed to negotiate the gentle elbow bending into the main span. There was a terrific ripping sound and the whole equippage, together with a section of the balustrade, went spilling over into a watery grave in the Danube below.

Col. Tornov and Commissar Vilanovitch were pacing in the latter's office under the nervous eyes of aides when the call came reporting the submerging of the truck and trailers. Tornov smashed himself down in a chair staring straight ahead.

A mocking apparition that was Fodhadnagy's leering face rose up in front of him. Vilanovitch was bellowing at his underlings, "Get diving operations started! Trace back every foot of street covered by the truck and comb the route for concealed dumps! You can't just eat 15 tons!" He cursed mightily, then muttered: "I wonder what the hell it was they brought in."

As his aides hurried out, Vilanovitch bent a sour face on Tornov. "So these Hungarians are fools, are they? Now you're getting a little sample."

"Oh, close your face!" Tornov jumped up and resumed pacing, smiting a clenched fist in his palm. "Twenty-five of my best men! Setin! How can I explain it!" He whirled on Vilanovitch.

"Moscow is going to ask, you know. They're going to want to know what the hell I was doing in this stupid side-venture of yours!"

"Mine?" Vilanovitch was thumb-jabbing his own chest. "You were the one who thirsted for Fodhadnagy's blood. You were going to make a fool out of him first, then a corpse!"

"It's still your boar's nest," growled Tornov.

"Is it?" Vilanovitch went around the desk with an ugly smile. "Whether you like it or not, you're in this up to your starchy neck! Right alongside of me. You can forget your precious reassignment. These 'stupid, contemptible Hungarians,' as you've been calling them, will sure as hell give you all the action you've been applying for—unless we grab that stuff before it's distributed."

Tornov essayed a scoff. "How can you know that?"

Vilanovitch charged witheringly. "This is no time to play ostrich. We've been cuckolded. Out-thought. Outmaneuvered. Completely outgeneraled. Brains and organization are behind this stroke. The question we better be asking ourselves is: "What's coming next? Where are they going to hit us, and with what?"

Tornov looked the thing in the face and realized that Vilanovitch was right. He was committed. Damn these Hungarians! Damn this "Joint Council." They'd ensnared him.

"All right, Vilanovitch — what is coming next? What do you think they brought in?"

CHAPTER 49

The commissar was saved the trouble of answering that. A voice on the intercom asked permission to send in an agent newly arrived from the river.

The agent entered carrying a long narrow wooden box. He explained, "When the truck went into the river a bunch of these popped to the surface. We have witnesses and have retrieved scores of them."

Another installment of the "Song of Siberia" next week.

Most good intentions become the victims of human frailty.

ADEQUATE WIRING with plenty of outlets!
MODERN GAS to heat water fast!
balanced power homes
give you the best of modern gas and electricity...for easiest living at lower cost!
Are you a man who shaves with an electric shaver? Followed by a showerful of pipin' hot water? Then you can appreciate what most builders agree is the latest answer to truly modern living: Gas and electricity have definite roles in the home; it's only common sense to use each on the jobs it does best. (Water heating is a good example. Gas does it faster, replaces it faster, and does it lots cheaper.) This same sound logic applies to all jobs done in today's BALANCED POWER homes.
Modern gas handles such jobs as water heating, cooking, clothes drying, home heating, and air conditioning—all the jobs it does, faster, better, cheaper. Adequate wiring and well-placed outlets are provided for modern lighting, dishwashers, TV sets . . . all your electrical needs.
So why settle for less than the balanced living you enjoy in BALANCED POWER homes? Look for the BALANCED POWER home sign displayed by quality builders throughout the Southland.

Camporee on April 14-16 At Rose Bowl

More than 1,200 Boy Scouts will participate in the 1961 Rose Bowl District Camporee to be held April 14, 15 and 16 at Brookside Park.

The Camporee will be attended by 179 Patrols rom 55 Troops within the Rose Bowl District to display and compete on a patrol basis in camping and the Scouting skills — against a common set of point standards.

"The Camporee is intended as an event in which Scouts can meet and compare on a standardized basis their skills with those of other Scouts in the district and council," said Morton S. Brewer, Camporee Guide chairman.

The areas of competition for the Scouts will be knot-tying events, first aid problems, signalling, compass and map problems, plus actual camping conditions where the boys set up their own camps and do their own cooking.

ACCORDING to Mr. Brewer, all patrols will be required to pack-in from the south end of the Rose Bowl down to Brookside, approximately one-half mile. General procedure will be that the Scouts will carry in all the equipment, food and personal articles to sustain them for an overnight pack trip to the mountains.

Mr .Brewer announced that a special feature of this year's Camporee will be "Trail-Wise Camp," which is one that packs in everything required for the duration of the Camporee with the exception of water, fuel and in some locations, stoves.

Mr. Brewer said, "The Camporee affords an excellent 'show place' for Cub Scouts, Parents and Friends to see Scouting in action."

Medic Group To Be Hosted By Pickrens

Members of Foothill Branch 13 of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Los Angeles County Medical Association will treat their husbands and guests to an informal evening of relaxation with a buffet supper at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Pickren of 345 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., Sierra Madre, Saturday evening April 15.

Mrs. Robert P. Fry, president of the Woman's Auxiliary, and Doctor Fry will join Dr. and Mrs. Pickren in greeting guests. The Sierra Madre Dixiland Jazz Band will give forth by the light of the stars and Japanese lanterns for dancing out of doors by the pool.

Mrs. Pickren, special activities chairman, is being assisted in the arrangements for the party by Mrs. John K. McBane, Mrs. Lee J. Milton, Mrs. Don P. Nebeker, Arcadia; Mrs. George W. Groth, Jr., Sierra Madre; Mrs. J. Douglas McNair, Bradbury, and Mrs. Jay I. Mulder, West Covina.

Poppy Days May 26-27

President Mrs. Nancy Milton will be hostess to the American Legion Auxiliary on Thursday evening, April 13, at her home, 255 E. Highland.

Fifteen members of the unit attended funeral services for Past President Leila Embree on Saturday afternoon, April 1, at the West Covina Methodist Church. Among those attending was Mrs. Bertha Irvine, a past president, from Santa Barbara.

The Department of California has set May 26 and 27 as Poppy Days. On those days the members will distribute the 1,300 poppies ordered this year. These poppies are made by the disabled veterans of San Fernando Hospital.

"Buy a Poppy and Do Your Bit" will be the slogan of the members.

New Manager At Flamingo

GEORGE GILBERT is the new manager at Flamingo Properties Realtors' Sierra Madre office. Gilbert has been associated with Flamingo Properties Arcadia office for the past four years and has been a resident of the area for more than 15 years.

Sales in excess of $500,000 since January 1 and anticipated increase in sales activity, plus addition of new members to the sales force, necessitated the appointment of a full-time manager in order to allow Mr. McNulty more time to devote to the expansion of the business.

AAUW Plans Membership Tea Saturday

Climaxing a year which saw its membership cross the 300 mark for the first time, the Arcadia Branch of the American Association of University Women will hold its Membership Tea, Saturday, April 15 from 2 until 4. The charming home of Mrs. Sidney M. Falk, 911 Hampton Rd., Sierra Madre-Arcadia, provides the setting for this annual social event when the organization pays tribute to its new members and welcomes prospective members.

Mrs. Thomas A. Marshall, president and Mrs. Albert G. Baker, membership chairman, will greet guests at the door. Mrs. Falk and past presidents of the Arcadia Branch, will preside over the beautifully appointed tea table.

MRS. BAKER heads the committee that is in charge of total arrangements including invitations and corsages. Mrs. Chester Williams, hospitality chairman for the branch, and Mrs. R. E. Sandiford, chairman of the hostess committee, are planning refreshments.

Mrs. Baker points out that in addition to a program which provides a variety of opportunities for participation by members, Arcadia Branch, AAUW serves the community by sponsoring Festive Fare, and is responsible for the Art Loan at the Arcadia Public Library in conjunction with Friends of the Library.

Death Summons Mrs. F. Lazenby

Services were Tuesday at 11 a.m. in the Ripple Mortuary Chapel, with Elder Robert Kitto officiating. Interment in Live Oak Cemetery.

Murray Joins With Sierra Engineering

Norris N. Murray

Sierra Engineering Co. has appointed Norris N. Murray, former civilian Air Force project engineer, to develop new flight equipment and breathing systems for the aviation and space industry, Harry L. Daulton, company president, announced this week.

Murray will divide his time between development work at the company's Sierra laboratories and calling upon clients who have need of Sierra's experience in such equipment as breathing masks, plastic helmets and associated oxygen breathing equipment.

The new Sierra engineer's most recent affiliation was with H. Koch and Sons where he served as sales engineer and contract administrator.

MURRAY has 15 years experience working with the Air Force either in uniform—he rose to the rank of captain—or as a civilian project engineer, particularly at Wright Development Laboratories, Dayton, O. His work on high altitude equipment and instrumentation for aerial photography is especially prized by Sierra, Daulton said.

Murray attended Ohio State's Institute of Aeronautics, the University of Dayton and Wright Engineering School.

Construction Service By 2 Brothers

An unusual service to homebuilders designed especially for their protection is being inaugurated by two Sierra Madre brothers, Jerry G. and Roger M. Webb, with headquarters for the present at 475 Canyon Dr.

The service covers design, contracting, best price, sites and right financing. Intermingled are definite and qualified advice on reliability of contractors, loose ends prior to start of construction, estimates on future possible complications after construction, and where to go to obtain maximum loans.

Roger and Jerry are sons of M. T. Webb, design engineer with North American Aviation at its Anaheim Division.

IN ADDITION to service for homebuilders, Jerry and Roger also will provide similar advice and plans on larger projects such as motels, professional, dental and medical buildings, shopping centers and subdivisions.

Their service includes planning so that buildings can be sold advantageously, tax problems, choice of areas in which to build, clearance of titles, landscaping and such necessities as sewage, credit reports on contractors, restrictions on property, zoning, back-positioning and escrow arrangements.

The brothers may be addressed as J. G. Webb, Proprietor and Building Consultant, P. O. Box 304, Sierra Madre, Calif. Their phone is ELgin 5-1378.
